

The Mipolam Troplan range of Homogeneous Flooring with directional designs and densely compacted surfaces offers improved wear and ease of maintenance. This flooring is available in rolls and tiles.

Troplan is part of the well established Mipolam range which already has an outstanding reputation for its performance in health and education buildings.